SATURDAY MOVIES – IN THE AUDITORIUM - APRIL

April 6th – 1:30 p.m. – "Killers of the Flower Moon" – 206 mins – "R" – 2023 – Drama, History, Mystery
Starring: Leonardo DiCaprio, Robert DeNiro and Lily Gladstone

The story takes place in the 1920s around the Osage Indian tribe living in Oklahoma. Native Americans are being killed one by one after the tribe becomes rich by discovering oil. The Osage massacre attracts the attention of the FBI, which begins an investigation.

April 13th – 7:00 p.m. – "Zookeeper's Wife"- 127 mins – "PG13" – 2017– Drama, Biograph, History
Starring: Jessica Chastain, Johan Heldenbergh & Daniel Bruhl

As war brews over in 1939 Warsaw, and while life is still running its course, the Germans are gradually making their presence felt, with Adolf Hitler secretly preparing for the invasion of Poland. Under those volatile circumstances, the couple of Jan Zabinski and Antonina Zabinska continue with their daily routine as owners of the Warsaw Zoo; however, their life's work, and the city, will turn to ashes when the Luftwaffe's horrific Stukas begin to hammer the capital. Now, with the zoo liquidated for the war effort, and many of its animals tragically perished, what was once a menagerie, will now serve as a sanctuary, where the pair of veterinarians can hide the persecuted Polish-Jewish people in plain sight. Indeed, that was the dangerous plan of the two altruists, who, regardless of the consequences, refused to wither before the Nazi menace, and sheltered three hundred Jewish men, women, and children right under the noses of the enemy. Will the world remember the zookeeper's wife?

April 20th – 7:00 p.m. – "A Prairie Home Companion" – 106 mins – "PG13" – 2006 – Comedy, Drama, Music
Starring: Lily Tomlin, Meryl Streep & Woody Harrelson

A final live variety show broadcast via radio becomes a metaphor for the natural order of life. A concept and script by Garrison Keilor use every natural and technical element of working with a tight and close ensemble producing a weekly show to sooth us and guide us through the natural but difficult transitions of aging, becoming less relevant and then dying as new, young life develops and strengthens during our final "performances." This is a rare film for it's remarkable cast and crew and one wonders how the great Robert Altman was able to gather them all at the same place and time to shoot this film.

April 27th – 7:00 p.m. - Classic Movie – "Another Thin Man" – 1939
Starring: William Powell & Myrna Loy with Virginia Grey, C. Aubrey Smith

Our amateur sleuths are on a case again along with parenthood duties. Yes, bon vaunts Nick & Nora Charles have to deal with hoodlums by the names of Dum Dum, Creeps, Wacky and Fingers. From a Birthday Bash held by these wise guys for little Nick Jr to finding out whom killed a Long Island Industrialist who feared for his life. The suspects abound. The case begins when the Charles family arrives for a weekend at a Long Island. Estate. This movie is based on a Dashiell Hammett story and is the third entry in this film series. Also starring Marjorie Main and Sheldon Leonard. A Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Picture.
