“One Woman’s View of the World”

Heath Village introduces its newest Artist-in-Residence

Washington Township, NJ – Heath Village is proud to introduce its new Artist-in-Residence Rachel Aron. Formerly of Flemington and Long Valley, Rachel (along with her husband Michael) moved to Heath Village in 2013.

An award winning photographer, Rachel is inspired by her travels from around the world with her husband. Her striking photographs stand as testament of their many adventures to places such as Estonia, Norway, Hungary, Canada, and the United States. Rachel has always enjoyed taking photographs but it wasn’t until 1984, when she and husband moved from England to America (Long Valley) that her love for capturing images that in her words “simply struck her fancy,” became a passion.

For many years, Rachel was a member of the Woman’s Club, first in Long Valley and then Flemington. Each year, every club selects a member’s work to enter into the District Arts & Crafts Show, from which the winners of each are automatically entered into the State Competition. Time and time again, Rachel’s beautiful photos were selected to be entered into the State Competition where they received honors, including first place, on several occasions.

For questions about the exhibit or to schedule a time to visit the gallery, please contact Melissa Nichols at 908-684-5006.
