HEATH VILLAGE RESIDENT
CELEBRATES 100th BIRTHDAY!!

This Cake's For You!

Washington Township -- Heath Village resident Mildred Crater celebrates her 100th birthday on December 2, 2017. She has lived at Heath Village since 2012. This feisty woman continues to live independently.

Millie was born in East Orange, NJ and raised and educated in Brooklyn, NY. She would spend her summers in Chatham with her aunt. Her first job was at a Woolworth five and dime store. She married her husband in 1940 and soon after settled in Basking Ridge where they raised their five children. Friends describe Millie as a very strong and caring woman who is always willing to lend a hand to those in need.

Millie loves decorating and has always kept an immaculate home and still does to this day. Her children would tease that they never knew what the house would look like when they came home from school. She was always redecorating and rearranging the furniture. She doesn't paint any longer but on any given day you can still find Millie rearranging the furniture in her apartment.

In addition to keeping house, Millie has always loved to bake. While her failing eyesight has made it difficult, family and friends still recall with great fondness her delicious cakes.
