Heath Village Hosts Free Seminar on the 2020 US Census
Monday, January 27 at 2:00 p.m.

Washington Township, Morris County – Member of the public are invited to join Heath Village residents on Monday, January 27 at 2:00 p.m. to learn about the U.S. Census from Thomas Zins, Partnership Specialist from the New York Regional Census Center.

Did you know Thomas Jefferson was in charge of the very first national Census in 1790 and that the 2020 Census will be the 24th Decennial Census? In addition to providing the history of and more fun facts about the U.S. Census, Zins will discuss why it is important to the local community and the process for how the government ensures a complete and accurate count of our population. Light refreshments will be served.

While the event is free; reservations are required. To register, or for additional information, please call Heath Village at 908-684-5006.
